GINGERBREAD

From hand-iced gingerbread to mulled wine, the sights and smells of European Christmas markets have never been more popular.

Our favourite market delights are traditional German gingerbread, lebkuchen, pfeffernüsse and allerlei.

Our time-honoured German gingerbread portfolio comes from Pertzborn and Wicklein.

Our Swedish gingerbread is from Nyåkers, the leading brand of gingersnap and spiced biscuits in Sweden.

OUR GINGERBREAD BUYER GUIDE

Origin:
Nürnberg, Germany

LEBKUCHEN

leb-koo-ken

Only gingerbread made to strict standards in Nuremberg can be called “Original Nürnberger Lebkuchen” - a mark of heritage and authenticity. Look for the PGI stamp which assures you of the highest quality.

Lebkuchen - a traditional spiced soft biscuit - originated in 13th century Germany, where monks made some of the first lebkuchen with honey, spices, and breadcrumbs. They used communion wafers as a base for the sticky gingerbread dough, and this custom is now integral to lebkuchen.

Lebkuchen is accredited by the certified seal of Protected Geographical Indicator (PGI), much like Champagne in France or Cheddar in England.

Standards for lebkuchen are in 2 classes:

Elisen-Lebkuchen (El-lisse-sen): which must have:

- At least 25% nuts (almonds, hazelnuts or walnuts)
- No more than 10% flour
- Baked on a wafer base

Oblaten*-Lebkuchen (ob-latt-ten): which must have:

- At least 14% nuts & seeds
- Baked on a wafer base

*Oblaten translates as wafer.

Fun Fact: Elisen-Lebkuchen are said to have been created by a baker in Nuremberg for his sick daughter, Elise, in the 14th century.

OTHER AUTHENTIC LEBKUCHEN

The word lebkuchen describes different types of spiced German biscuits. Discover more varieties below.

ALLERLEI

al-ler-lie

Meaning 'all kinds' allerlei are soft gingerbread biscuits, traditionally sugar-glazed or coated in chocolate.

Unlike classic lebkuchen, allerlei lebkuchen are made without wafers.

PFEFFERNÜSSE

pfef-fer-noose

A German Christmas favourite since the 1850s, these small, spiced biscuits ("pepper nuts") are named for their nut-like size and hint of black pepper, blended with cinnamon, cardamom, cloves, ginger, and nutmeg.

Fun Fact: Although called "pepper nuts" they do not contain any nuts.

ZIMTSTERNE

zimt-schtern-ne

Translating to "cinnamon stars," these flourless German biscuits are known for their high nut content and rich cinnamon flavour.

Fun Fact: Zimtsterne were a treat for kings and emperors because cinnamon was very expensive in medieval Germany.

Origin:
Germany

SOFT-BAKED GINGERBREAD

Authentic German gingerbread stands apart from mass-produced imitations. Found in Christmas markets across Germany and Austria, it has a soft-baked texture and is delicately spiced, unlike the more highly spiced American-style gingerbread.

Gingerbread has been enjoyed since the Middle Ages when exotic spices arrived in Europe.

Gingerbread houses are believed to have originated in 19th-century Germany, inspired by Grimm's Hansel and Gretel fairy tale.

Fun Fact: Queen Elizabeth I had gingerbread men made to look like the dignitaries visiting her court.

Origin:
Sweden

PEPPARKAKOR

pep-par-ka-kor

Pepparkakor, a Swedish ginger biscuit, is spicier and thinner than a gingersnap, giving a signature crispy texture. For the best quality, choose traditional recipes made without GMOs or palm oil.

Popular in Sweden since the 16th century, pepparkakor's name comes from peppar (pepper) and kakor (biscuit), though modern versions rarely contain pepper.

Enjoy with tea, coffee, or glögg (Swedish mulled wine) for the perfect seasonal treat.

Origin: Germany

SPEKULATIUS

spec-u-latt-ti-us

Spekulatius are lightly spiced crunchy biscuits, traditionally eaten in Germany at Christmas time.

The design on this biscuit represents a bishop's crozier.

Fun Fact: The name spekulatius is derived from Latin, and means bishop to represent St. Nicholas of Myrna, known as Santa Claus today.

Origin:
Germany

STOLLEN

schtolen

Stollen is a German sweet yeast bread, baked with butter, nuts, spices and dried fruit. It is coated with icing sugar.

Nowdays, only the more luxurious Stollen contains butter. Premium Stollen depends on high fruit content for sweetness, rather than cheaper marzipan.

Stollen is eaten in slices, often with coffee or Christmas punch.

Stollen is characteristically baked free-form into lopsided loaves and is said to have originated in 1329, as a result of a baking competition, organised by the Bishop of Nauruburg.

Fun Fact: The Dresdner Stollenfest (Stollen Party) is held annually, featuring Germany's largest Stollen. The largest Stollen to date weighed over 4,000kg. Each year a horsedrawn carriage parades the winning giant stollen through the streets.

Pertzborn (per-tz-born) is a traditional German bakery that originated in 1884, and is still run by the family (3rd generation). Gingerbread products are baked using secret family recipes - perfected over the years. German gingerbread is soft and very lightly spiced.

Everything is iced by hand.

Their ever-popular range includes DIY gingerbread kits, intricately hand-decorated gingerbread houses, trains, trucks and various tree decorations.

In the lead-up to Christmas in Germany, Pertzborn gingerbread products are bought in local bakeries, and enjoyed by children and adults alike.

Nyakers' Advert

Nyåkers were founded in 1952. Originally a small family-run bakery, it supplied a variety of biscuits by wagon around it's neighbourhood. Nyåkers are now one of the largest bakeries in Sweden and are famous world-wide for their pepparkakor (gingersnaps).

Suitable for vegans, GMO and palm-oil-free, their delicious pepparkakor are great for stocking fillers, gifting or as an ideal snack with a cup of tea or coffee.

BUYER GUIDE

Origin:
Milan, Italy

PANETTONE

pan-eh-tone-ni

Panettone - Milan's iconic holiday bread - embodies luxury and celebration at Christmas. Authentic panettone features rich, buttery dough, natural leavening, and a perfect balance of candied fruit and raisins.

Making a traditional panettone is a lengthy procedure. Family bakeries that produce panettone have perfected their recipes and process over generations.

Artisans use a sourdough base for a slow leavening process which takes days to prove. The dough is enriched with high-quality butter and egg yolks, giving it a signature golden colour and airy texture.

Lower quality alternatives have taken shortcuts in the baking process, that is reflected in the taste and quality.

Legend traces panettone's origins to 15th-century Milan, where a young cook named Toni created it after ruining the planned dessert at the Sforza family's Christmas Eve banquet. Duke Ludovico il Moro, impressed by the result, named it 'Pan di Toni' in his honour.

Delicious on its own, it pairs beautifully with coffee, prosecco, or as an ingredient in seasonal desserts - like Christmas trifle.

Available in various sizes and elegant packaging - hand-wrapped, gift tins and small hanging boxes.

Fun Fact: After baking panettone are hung upside down to "stretch" which gives it its familiar dome top.

Origin:
Milan, Italy

AMARETTI

A-mah-rett-ti

Amaretti can come in different forms and flavours, often flavoured with chocolate or liqueurs. Traditionally served with dessert wines, liqueur or coffee or as an ingredient in many desserts.

Authentic Italian versions use apricot kernels, sugar, and egg whites, making them naturally gluten-free with a chewy texture and rich almond flavour. Beware of imitations with added wheat flour or artificial flavourings.

Legend says amaretti originated in 18th-century Italy when two young lovers created them for a visiting Cardinal. Their name comes from “amaro,” meaning “bitter,” reflecting their almond taste.

Amaretti come in beautifully wrapped packaging, making them ideal for gifting.

Fun Fact: A fun Italian practice is to fold an empty amaretti wrapper into a cylinder, light it at one end, and when fully burned, the wrapper, will float into the air. It’s fun to see whose wrapper soars the highest.

SOFT AMARETTI

Known as Sasello

Italian soft amaretti biscuits are chewy with a delicate bitter almond flavour which distinguishes them from similar French macarons.

CRUNCHY AMARETTI

Known as Saronno

Traditional Italian crunchy amaretti biscuits have a crisp texture, perfect with coffee, desserts, or crumbled over gelato.

Origin:
Rome, Italy

CANTUCCINI

Can-tu-chi-ni

Cantuccini (or biscotti) are twice-baked almond biscuits, known for their crisp texture and golden-brown exterior. Their name comes from the Latin word for “piece of bread,” reflecting their baking process. Loaves are baked, sliced, and re-baked for the classic shape and crunch.

Traditionally enjoyed by dunking in coffee or liqueur, they make a great festive treat.

Fun Fact: Whilst cantuccini were part of a Roman soldier’s rations, they were popularised in Renaissance Tuscany, where almonds were added at the Medici court.

Origin:
Verona, Italy

PANDORO

Pan-dor-ro

Pandoro, a classic Italian Christmas delicacy, is known for its soft, golden texture and rich, buttery flavour. Authentic versions use traditional recipes, high-quality butter, and a slow-leavening process for signature lightness - unlike imitations that are baked quickly and compromise on quality.

Meaning 'Golden Bread,' pandoro originated in Verona, where pastry chef Domenico Melegatti patented its iconic eight-pointed star shape in 1884, with earlier versions tracing back to the Venetian Republic.

Pandoro is a great alternative to panettone, as it offers an authentic Italian option without candied fruit.

Traditionally dusted with icing sugar, pandoro can also be sliced horizontally to create a stunning Christmas tree.

Origin:
Cremona, Italy

NOUGAT

Nu-gah

According to legend, nougat was born in 1441 during the marriage of Francesco Sforza and Bianca Maria Visconti.

The bride and groom were offered a confection made with honey, almonds and egg white - in the form of Torrazzo or "torrione" the thirteenth century tower of Cremona cathedral, from which the Italian word for nougat, "Torrone", would take its name.

Fun Fact: The annual Festa del Torrone in Cremona continues to celebrate the city's love of nougat.

Amaretti Di Saronno (A-mah-rett-ti Dee Sa-rone-no) and the Lazzaroni (Latz-za-rone-nee) family have been making amaretti biscuits since 1719 and are custodians of an amaretti archive, housed in the cloisters of a 14th-century Franciscan church in Saronno, which contains biscuit tins dating from the 1870s.

Available in crunchy, soft and flavoured varieties, these biscuits are made in Saronno, an Italian town now famous for amaretto products.

In 1881, Secondo Vergani (Ver-gar-knee) bought the small grocer's shop where he worked in northern Italy. He dedicated himself passionately to making artisanal nougat of the very best quality. Vergani nougat soon became renowned for its exceptional taste and quality, and its fame spread throughout Italy and beyond.

Today Vergani continues to produce some of Italy's finest nougat and confectionery in Cremona, in the Lombardy region of Italy.

This year our Vergani range includes beautifully packaged high-quality nougats and pralines.

FESTIVE FAVOURITES

Celebrate Christmas with premium Spanish brittle nougat; gourmet French lollipops in a playful tin; exquisite Italian confectionery in whimsical tins; a beautiful French Advent Calendar; festive French and English syrups; decadent Irish relishes and, of course, gift packs of herbs and spices.

Oooh! Don't forget our interactive chocolate board games.

For the perfect stocking fillers, look no further.

We also have premium quality goose fat to help create delicious roasties!

OUR FESTIVE FAVOURITES

BUYER GUIDE

Origin:
Rome, Italy

MULLED WINE

Mulled wine is a festive essential, evoking the warmth and aroma of Christmas. This year's offer includes a variety of formats - whole spices, sachets and syrups, which cater to different customer preferences.

Originating with the Romans - who infused wine with honey and spices - mulled wine spread across Europe, becoming glühwein in Germany and glögg in Sweden. It regained popularity in Victorian times and remains a Christmas favourite.

The best wines for mulling are deep, rich, and fruity, such as Merlot which complement the spices beautifully.

Serve mulled wine with Christmas classics like gingerbread, mince pies or a cheese board for the ultimate seasonal treat.

Origin:
Ancient Egypt

GOOSE & DUCK FATS

Seasoned cooks know that goose or duck fat gives the very best roasted potatoes.

With its high smoke point you can give potatoes the proper blast of heat required to turn them really crispy.

Beware of cheaper, inferior goose and duck fats that are gritty and have not been supplied by producers with good bird welfare standards.

You can substitute duck fat for goose fat and vice-versa.

Fun Fact: The ancient Egyptians kept geese for their fat as early as 2500 BC. This practice spread later to the Mediterranean region.

Origin:
Jijona, Spain

TURRÓN

ture-ron

The traditional recipe for turrón has two main ingredients: almonds and honey. However the process to make it involves many steps and great skill.

For Turrón di Jijona (Ture-rone Dee Hee-ho-na), a smooth paste is made from roasted almonds and local honey, poured into moulds and allowed to set. Creates a creamy texture.

Turrón is regulated by the Spanish Government and is accredited by the certified seal of Protected Geographical Indicator (PGI).

Serve turrón at room temperature, as it is easier to slice and has a smoother texture. Enjoy by itself, or pair with cheese or fruits.

Fun Fact: The history of turrón dates back to medieval times, when almonds were combined with honey to create a sweet, energy-dense food.

Origin:
Cuneo, Italy/ Lyon, France

MARRON GLACÉ

ma-ron glah-say

Marron glacés are whole candied chestnuts, crafted through a meticulously long process which lasts for days - to achieve a smooth, uncracked glaze. They are best presented individually, wrapped in elegant boxes.

Believed to have originated in 16th-century France and Italy, marron glacés emerged when returning crusaders introduced sugar to Europe, enabling new confections.

Ideal for festive gifting. Marron glacés are an after-dinner delicacy, pairing well with coffee and seasonal desserts.

Origin:
Egypt and China

QUAIL EGGS

Delicate and petite with a speckled shell, quail eggs are considered a delicacy across the world.

They work well as mini scotch eggs, blini toppers and in sandwiches and salads.

Fun Fact: Quail eggs were first eaten in Egypt and China, where they were used in traditional medicine.

Turrón for 1880, El Lobo and Memorable is certified Protected Geographical Indication (PGI). For Spanish Turrón it means:

- Origin & Authenticity: Only turrón made in Jijona, using traditional methods, can bear the PGI label.
  - Quality Ingredients: Must contain a high percentage of Spanish almonds and honey, ensuring superior taste and texture. The almonds used must be sourced from specific regions of Spain, such as Valencia and Aragon, and must be of a certain variety known as ‘Marcona’.
- The honey must also be of high quality and must come from bees that have foraged in specific areas of Spain.
- Traditional Craftsmanship: Production follows age-old techniques that have been passed down for generations.

Bautista Sirvent founded his first artisan workshop in 1725, dedicated to the production of turrón. Over the centuries and eleven generations later the 1880 brand is still renowned for its ultra-premium quality and taste.

The 1880 brand takes its name from the year it was first created.

Pierrot Gourmand has made life a little sweeter since 1892, when confectioner Georges Evrard opened Au Pierre Gourmand in Paris.

The perfect combination of sugar and fresh milk gives each lollipop its deliciously striking flavour. Slowly cooked to obtain a beautiful texture, ingredients are then poured into a traditional cast-iron mould to create the iconic feather shape of Pierrot Gourmand lollipops. Each lollipop is then carefully wrapped in a pretty coloured papillote.

Fun Fact: The Pierrot Gourmand was styled on Pierrot the clown, mimed by Jean-Gaspard Debureau in the 19th century.

Selsley

Based in Gloucestershire, Selsley Foods are artisan distillers of non-alcoholic mulling syrups.

Gourmet Wine Mulling Syrup is their signature product - containing a blend of spices and a cinnamon quill.

When the syrup is added to wine and warmed gently, it creates an excellent mulled wine at home.

Delicious when drizzled over ice-cream or poached pears.

The Ballymaloe (bally-mah-loo) story began in Ireland in the 1930s, when Myrtle Allen would create a delicious tomato relish, with tomatoes grown by her husband in County Cork, Ireland.

She opened a restaurant and only created the daily dinner menu after seeing what the local farmers brought to her kitchen door. Myrtle Allen went on to become the first female chef in Ireland to be awarded a Michelin Star.

Ballymaloe Cookery School is recognised as the finest cookery school in Ireland.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Pricing Applicable Date

Please be aware our pricing is subject to change, and we (Empire Bespoke Foods) reserve the right to amend the prices shown within our catalogue due to any unforeseen circumstances. Live pricing is available to view, when logged in, online at www.empirebespokefoods.com.

2. Deliveries and Delivery Charges

We aim to deliver within 5 working days. If for any reason, whatsoever we cannot make delivery within the time specified the Company shall not be liable for any losses or damage sustained by the purchaser.

We deliver with our vans in the London Delivery area and by third party carrier in all other areas. Provided your order exceeds a certain value, your delivery will be free of charge. If your order is under this value, your order will be subject to a carriage charge. The minimum orders and carriage charges are set out below:

Delivery Area	Minimum Order Value - Free Delivery (Ex VAT)	Below Minimum Order Value - Delivery Charge
London (within M25)	£200.00	£40.00
Mainland UK	£500.00	£40.00
Postcodes in the Scottish Highlands: PH, DD, AB, IV, KW, PA, 19+	£900.00	£60.00
Ireland & IOW	£1,000.00	POA
Other Islands	Quoted on order-by-order basis	N/A

3. Orders Outside the London Van Delivery Area

Orders are delivered on pallets and delivery is made to the door of the premises. It is not possible to request that delivery drivers unpack the pallet or that they remove the pallet or packaging.

4. Shortages and Damages *PLEASE NOTE*

The Company will only accept liability for:

- Signed delivery as DAMAGED or SHORTAGES
- If possible take photographs with a digital camera and e-mail them to sales@empirebespokefoods.com
- Return any damaged items to the driver, or keep them to be collected another day
- Report the credit request to Empire Bespoke Foods Head Office within 1 day of the date of delivery
- Make a note of the reference number given to you, if reporting the request by phone

If you are requesting a credit for any other reason, you should make the request in writing to Empire Bespoke Foods within 24 hours of date of delivery for ambient goods. Any verbal request for credit should be followed up in writing along with the name of the person you spoke to.

The reason that we impose the above conditions is that we can only claim for damages from our transporters within a 24 hour period. This has a direct impact on our costs and in turn to you; your cooperation is therefore extremely important. If you do make a credit request and have not signed the delivery note as "damaged" credits will be refused.

5. Prices and Foreign Exchange

As a significant proportion of the goods we supply are imported, their prices are subject to factors beyond our control in the Foreign Exchange Market. Empire Bespoke Foods reserves the right to change the prices shown in this brochure without notice.

Empire Bespoke Foods reserves the right to amend these terms from time to time upon no less than 28 days' notice. Circulating the amended new terms with company documentation or correspondence shall be deemed reasonable notice. All orders placed by a customer after a period of 28 days from such circulation shall be deemed to be in acceptance of the new terms. The proper law of all dealings under these terms is English law and any disputes or claims arising will be settled by the applicable court of England.

6. Credit Accounts

Please note that unless otherwise stated, your account will be pro-forma. This means that payment must be made before goods are dispatched or, if agreed, on receipt of the goods. Payment can be made by credit or debit card, BACs transfer or cheque prior to dispatch of the goods.

If you have an agreed credit account with Empire Bespoke Foods, settlement of all invoices must be made as per agreed payment terms. Empire Bespoke Foods reserves the right to amend the terms of any credit account (including the credit limit) you have at any time at its absolute discretion. If you exceed, or the order to be delivered to you will cause you to exceed, your agreed credit limit, or if you have invoices outside of agreed payment terms, Empire Bespoke Foods may decline to supply you until the excess amount over your credit limit has been cleared or overdue invoices have been paid.

7. Retention of Title

Retention of Title & All Monies and Proceeds of Sales Clause:

- Empire Bespoke Foods Ltd retains legal ownership of any goods delivered to, or services provided to its customers, until payment is made by or on behalf of the customer.
- Empire Bespoke Foods Ltd reserves the right to enter the customer's premises for the purposes of inspecting and the removal of any unpaid goods supplied by Empire Bespoke Foods Ltd to the value of the outstanding debt that may, or may not, relate to the unpaid invoices.
- Empire Bespoke Foods Ltd also reserves the right to claim the proceeds of any sub-sale of goods they have supplied to the buyer (you) to the value of the unpaid invoices.

8. Payment

We prefer payment to be made in sterling by BACS transfer directly into our account. (USD and EURO account details are available on request)

Please quote your Customer Account Reference (it is on the top right-hand side of your invoice) as a reference on your payment so that we allocate it correctly to your account.

We also accept cheques drawn on to a UK clearing bank.

We can also accept payment by credit and debit card. There is no minimum payment for this facility.

9. Packaging

Packaging and case sizes may be subject to change without notice.

10. VAT

Vat code 0 = Zero rated

Vat code 1 = Standard rate 20%

Vat code 10 = Half rate 10 %
